“The Karbala incident will continue to inspire all humanity to offer sacrifices to get rid of the oppression and injustice” the President said in a special message on the eve of Ashur day,

The AJK president said that we need to seek guidance from the Karbala tragedy to achieve our supreme cause. Our oppressed brethren including men and women were resisting Indian repression in occupied Kashmir, he said that the Kashmiri people were eyeing us and on the sacred occasion, we pledge that we would promote fraternity and brotherhood, harmony and the spirit of sacrifice in our national life.
